

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, October 2, 1903, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Beinn Bhreagh, Victoria County, Cape Breton, N. S. Oct. 2nd 1903. My dear Alec:

I do miss you so, I staid in bed this morning until the dear knows when and had breakfast there, simply because I didn't know what to do with myself without you. Yet there are heaps of things to do. To think you are still travelling on and on through the night. Are you very tired, or did your nap this morning save you? I don't know now why I let you go without me, except that our trip to Whycocomagh showed me that really all you need is complete rest and change. Do lets take another little trip together.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennan dined with us this evening, also Bessie Macrae, Mr. Totten, Lina, Mr. Mitchell and George. Things don't go with the bang and snap as when you are here to take us all up and carry us along, still we had quite a nice time. We read of Sir Michael Herbert's death, isn't it a pity.

Much love to you. Take care of yourself, I want Dr. Sowers to see you and report to me, please do this for me. Please be good to my Mother, I do love her so and want you to help her.

Yours ever,
